

News Story - Baking and Snow Fun

Children have recently shown a lot of interest in 'The Gingerbread Man' story, last week children requested this book at story time.

This week we decided to bake our very own 'Gingerbread Man' biscuits.

Children used many utensils to measure out the ingredients they needed. They enjoyed pouring, mixing and then finally rolling out their biscuits ready for the hot oven!

Whilst the children waited for the biscuits to come out of the oven, they were very lucky to go outside and enjoy some fun in the snow. For some of the children this was a first time experience.

"it's white"

"It's soft.... and cold!"

Children also related this to another story they had recently read, 'Elmer in the Snow.'

Once the biscuits had cooled, children came back inside ready to have fun decorating their biscuits and tasting them. Children took the rest home to share with their families.

"I like biscuits"

"It's brown!"

"The gingerbread man will run away!"

"I can roll it."
